

Off His Head

There's a crack-head in the street
I think he could be dead
He's completely stoned
Just lying there
On the new laid flags

He's a youngish guy quite tall
I think he could be dead.
People passing by
Don't really care
He's a dreg they said

In front of Marks and Spencer's
I think he could be dead
Someone shouts across
Leave him put a
Bullet in his head

There's a market stall quite near
I think he could be dead
Dial 999 help
He's off his head
And very pale, I said

The ambulance arrives
I think he could be dead
Someone knows his name
It's Dean just Dean
And no, he isn't dead

He's like this every day
The first responder said
It's spide he's on sends
Him off his head
Is that living then? I said
